Anglo-Egyptian Treaty Efforts Fail

Manning Given New Tax Offer

FREDERICKTON, (CP)—Premier McNair announced Thursday that the British government is prepared to accept his dominion's new proposals as the basis of a new tax agreement with the federal government.

Premier McNair expressed the hope that general acceptance of the new proposals would open the way for a revival of discussions on the general program which was under consideration at the recent dominion-provincial conference.

OTTAWA, (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott is expected to announce later Thursday the details of the dominion's new taxation agreement proposals which some sources have predicted will bring agreements with seven if not all nine provinces.

Premier Manning of Alberta re-opening negotiations which were suspended two months ago, was told by Mr. Abbott that the dominion was ready to seek agreement with the provinces.

While making no comment on the meeting, Mr. Manning indicated he would discuss the new offers with his cabinet. His return to Edmonton, however, would be delayed at least until the weekend because he has other governmental matters to discuss with federal authorities. In earlier negotiations, Alberta rejected the dominion's offer of a flat rate of 10 per cent as being practically exclusive use of the personal income, incorporation and inheritance taxes. New Manitoba, Saskatchewan, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island accepted the offer. Alberta and British Columbia also agreed.

To make the tax concessions, but for a subsidy which worked out to about $20 per capita.

shoppers and aimless youths who had threatened to burn down the city.

Deny Threat Made To Leave Empire

SYDNEY, Australia, (AP)—Winston Churchill has denied that Britain is threatening to withdraw from Australia.

OTTAWA—Canada is awaiting an answer to its request for further participation than that it has been offered by the German peace terms.

The British dominions minister said the most unexpected statement of the kind "is potentially dangerous" and can be an affront to an assortment of diseases such as tuberculosis, cholera, plague, smallpox and diphtheria.

Canada Is Insisting Greater Voice

TORONTO—Canada is insisting that it will be David Lloyd George in India rather than a general of the dominions heads of Canada, Australia, New Zealand and India turn over to the dominions their share of regional autonomy and independence from the British dominions.

"It is not for me to say what Mr. Higgins said," I can't make out how. Dr. Butler could have got hold of this fantastic story."

In New York, Dr. Higgins informed me of his statement, declared.

"All I know is what Lloyd George told me. Lloyd George and they (the dominions) were threatening to withdraw."

He declined to amplify the statement.

Will Cut Ration U.K. Fresh Meat

LONDON, (CP)—Food rationing will continue, but the fresh meat ration of 12 oz. a week will be reduced to 10 oz. by the end of March, Dr. McGeer said the reduction will be made good by an equivalent amount of corned beef.

The total ration of fresh meat and corned meat will be maintained at 12 oz. a week for 26 weeks, a return each week for the remainder of the year, Dr. McGeer said.

The Socialists took the key internal ministry which controls the police. The Communists got the national ministries.

More Than Half of Oil Needs For Prairies Now Imported

By H. C. Hardy

OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—The oil companies are importing an average of 20,000 barrels of oil a day and refining about 100,000 barrels daily, said G. R. Hume, of the geology branch of the department of mines and resources. He also said that the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy was warning.

At the end of the war, said Dr. Hume, there was a surplus of crude oil from Turner Valley and from the Peace River area and provinces, but this situation changed rapidly.

"The oil production of 19,000 barrels per day," said Dr. Hume, "is not quite half the consumption." Turner Valley has been producing the production today is more than 2,000 barrels a day less than a year ago. The oil companies are buying oil from Turner Valley and smaller fields in Alberta to supply refineries. The oil companies are importing oil. Oil imports of crude oil are now being made from Montana into Alberta.

Hudson's Bay Stores

"It has been very difficult to find a sufficient supply of crude oil in the Prairies to meet the demand for import to the Canadian border, so naturally the oil coming from refineries has been limited. For example, about half of the oil now being imported is from the Peace River area coming from the mid-continent field between the two provinces.

Oklahoma, and some crude oil has been imported from the Gulf Coast and Louisiana. In the winter this crude oil had to be transported by tank cars and the cost of transport freight rate is relatively heavy.

During the war the demand paid off and the oil companies imported into the prairie provinces. This has now been discontinued and the price of oil in all the Prairie Valley has risen 50 cents a barrel equivalent to about two cents a gallon for gasoline.

Farms Need Cheap Fuel

"The cost of western Canada, where largely the oil company structure is bound up with the oil situation, is not cheap on products are not finding a market."

"There is no doubt a large supply of oil can be obtained from the bituminous sand but whether this will be done will depend on the cost of production," he said.

He said the cost of the plant of refining bituminous into high-grade products is very high. It will therefore be necessary to do some extensive studies to discover whether the deficiency of oil in the prairie provinces can be met by the production from the bituminous sands.

This is a question which cannot be answered satisfactorily at the present time.

Leniency Promised If Deserters Quit

LONDON, (AP)—Sir Ernest Alexander on Wednesday promised lenient treatment to those deserters from the British forces if they will give up by March 31.

Soldiers' Yard has blamed deserters from the British and other Allied forces for a large share of the new recruits who have entered the services which have flourished since the entry of the United States into the war. It is estimated there are 20,000 British deserters "leading an underground existence in Britain alone."

Claims Discovery 'Man in Making'

NAIROBI, Kenya Colony, (AP)—Wing Commander Gres Clark, British astronomer, said at a press conference Wednesday that the bones of a creature found in South Africa were those of a man, possibly of a group, including great apes, from whom man originated.

Clark, an Oxford university professor, said he was "astonished by what man had done to the apes and limb bones discovered near Sterkfontein and that there was no evidence of any struggle."

The creature was closely related to man.

He told the congress the discovery indicated that the first meeting of man probably took place in Africa.

Clark said the bones of the strange "ape man" showed he had a brain one-third as large as that of human beings. He had a long skull, short hands and closely followed the apes' pattern of anatomy, although considerably larger than present-day man. He said the teeth were like those of apes.

The South African discovery, he said, definitely was "man in the making."

France. The contract calls for 140 of these prime movers.

That indicates how heavily French railways suffered from Nazi Germany's war policies; how desirable the transportation system of the country is and one factor which is slowing down
the French effort toward economic recovery.

Building these engines is a major item in the assistance which Canada is giving France.
Another major item also in the industrial assistance version in Canada to蓬皮杜 and activists is steel.

It will take some thousands of men many months to turn out these locomotives, so man divides the work among a reasonably great number of months. The tools they use and the materials they require will keep other men busy in other plants all the way back to the mines from which the steel comes.

And the food, clothing and other supplies all these need will provide work and wages for still other men in a wide variety of occupations
all across Canada.

The reconstruction will cost $18,000,000. They will be paid for directly out of the $242,500,000 loan which the Dominion made to France. Had this loan not been made, France would have to go to the United States for help—unless less it could get them somewhere else on time, which is very doubtful.

This was the proposal, repeated in a number of instances, in which the unscrupulous but villainous economic advisers of Hitler intended to leave France and every other country which might in future rebel against the overlords they proposed to establish. They planned to do both.

Canada is getting something more out of that loan than the financial help it gives to France.
It is also helping to fill French orders for sup plies running all the way from locomotives and ships to foods. It has also the satisfaction of knowing that it is helping to restore a country which must be restored by Europe itself, and which must be restored if Europe is to recover economic and political balance.

The Nova Scotia steel strike is off. A new ended during this period.

This seems to settle the issue in the steel industry of the Dominion. The highly articles made from steel are scarce, and these articles hamper a wide range of industries.

at the stern and two at the waist, will be mounted on each vessel.

The Nahanni Valley

Vancouver Province

It is a simple matter to build up mystery and legend round some areas far removed from the beaten track, and always particularly if the region is inaccessible and has unusual features.

So it is with the Nahanni Valley of British Columbia which now has many intriguing names and legends. The valley is the home of the dim recesses and rugged stretches as they have been found in almost every valley in the world, and the ways of getting into it are ways going far into the wilderness ill-prepared for eventualities.

The department of mines and resources at Ottawa had a hasty look on this valley and while all the terrible fact of its tragedies and natural characteristics are studied there is little illusion left, certainly no mystery attractive enough to warrant an expedition.

Aviation officials in Canada should therefore study safety measures which are taken in other countries, with the idea of copying any of them which are necessary—which would be reassuring to the public. Like democratic governments aviation must hold public confidence
if it is to achieve success.

Make-Shift Governments

Leaders on this continent, and wherever else settled government exists, will be in demand of a make-shift government. A good government spokesman there says Mikajlović "may be ousted from the cabinet. The bewildering point is not that he is to be kicked out, but that he is to be kicked in."

Mikajlović is the leader of the Peasant party. He fought the government in the ele ction campaign, and the ground on which it was elected and stayed partly because if the region
is inaccessible and has unusual features.

This could not happen in Canada, nor in any country where democratic government has developed into a system whereby men are elected to represent the people. Under such a system there has to be collective responsibility and agree ment on the part of members of a cabinet.

The Mikajlović government in the Peasant party was created, including men who agreed on nothing except that there had to be a ministry. Nominally all groups were given equal representation. In fact the views of no

What these students are studying when they

Hitler's Ghost Smiles

BY ELMORE PHILPOTT

RECENTLY U.S. law enforcement officers broke up a southern Fascist meeting by breaking windows. A clever girl reporter had photographed the secret documents. The first three questions asked recruits were:

"Do you hate Jews?"

"Do you hate Negroes?"

"Do you hate Communists?"

About nine years ago I wrote in this column about Fascism in Quebec. I showed that Arcane and his brown-shirted gangsters about nine years ago I wrote in this column about Fascism in Quebec. I showed that Arcane and his brown-shirted gangsters had been instrumental in the secret of their loyalties—were Hitler's swastikas on their shirts?

It was not till the darkest hours of Hitler's power that Arcane's got the secret of their loyalty.

It has been proved a forged document in numerous court cases. Yet its publication is permitted in Quebec in 1946.

THE LATEST act of the Social Credit government of Alberta should shatter the illusion that this incipient race-hate is merely a temporary phase of the Nazi movement.

It is a well-known fact that the Dies Committee in the U.S. which revealed that Arcane's was

The important thing is to note the date on which the Alberta Social Credit government decided to exclude the魁北克 branch of the party.

and distributed to all branches of the Canadian forces.

Amounts to "Legalized Fraud"Claims Bounty System For Coyotes Failure

The bounty system of controlling the coyote menace is a complete failure, and usually becomes "legalized fraud," Stanley P. Young, senior biologist of fish and wild life service for the United States department of the interior at Washington, said in an interview here Wednesday.

A NOTED AUTHORITY on wild life history in North America and widely read author of scientific publications, Mr. Young is completing a tour of coyote-infested areas of the continent, gathering material for a new book on the coyote.

George Kligor, an interested member of the Anglican church, said the coyote hunting by government hunters has proved the only effective method of combating the coyote menace in the United States, Mr. Young said.

SYSTEMATIC HUNTING of the coyotes, through a system of organized government hunting, has proved the only effective method of combating the coyote menace in the United States, Mr. Young said.

He is accompanied by Mrs. Young.

It was found that the bounty system usually became a racing competition to see who could kill the most animals, the tendency being to kill coyotes the game department, and to use fraud and deceit to pad up the figures.

There are now about 800 districts hunters. This is a co-operative setup, involving county and livestock associations.

THESE HUNTERS are experts, who utilize baited cyanide guns, calling the gunners "traps" and stomachs to kill coyotes.

"Wolves of North America" and "The Puma" are two of Mr. Young's soon known works of natural history.

We are not getting on top in the battle against the coyote," he declared.

After leaving Edmonton, Mr. Young will go to Vancouver and on to Seattle, then to San Francisco, where he will be guest of the Shasta; Allen McBain, boarding the CNR for Vancouver.

Workers need MILK

In 1938, food-conscious Britain tested the effect of milk upon the health and stamina of industrial workers. Here's what Sir George Newman said about the results: "As many as 7349 factories employing over two million persons participated, and consumed eight million gallons of milk yearly. The result was better health, more production and less lost time through absence from work."

To be Awarded AnnuallyOffer Ministerial Scholarships

Establishment of a scholarship, to be awarded annually to a candidate for the Anglican ministry, was decided at a meeting of the Anglican Church Monday evening. The scholarship will be a war memorial and will be determined by the amount of money given for training, but would not necessarily cover all their tuition.

The Rev. D. W. OTTERLEY, rector, proposed the general program. In all departments of the church, three four-year members were added to the roll, and reports from various organizations showed them to be in good condition financially, and in membership.

Total giving for the church for general purposes was $14,000, reported, and, in addition, $9,000 was paid toward the quota of $14,

000 for the Anglican Advance.

Contributions will be effected to the church in memory of those who died in the Second Great War, and to the memory of R. H. Caulley, who died in 1945 after serving in the Royal Canadian Air Force.

D. W. F. RICHARDSON was appointed rector's warden and R. P. Rydell, peoples warden.

Mrs. W. Stewart Re-Elected President of Local Council

Mrs. W. F. Stewart was re-elected president of Edmonton's Local Council of Women at the annual general meeting held yesterday afternoon in the VWCA.

In her presidential address, Mrs. Stewart referred to the question whether to conserve the resources and laws we urged members to live by to those in other countries. She said we can live together peacefully in Canada, they could not expect the same kind of friendly and harmonious understanding.

"WOMEN," Mrs. Stewart said, "for the first time in our history have been well educated and strong for representation. Much has been attained, but the success of this struggle must continue to live here and now in the years of 1947."

She said that women must continue to foster the principle that the best functioning of citizenship demands the participation of both men and women in the family and in the administration of the country.

She can no longer think of any people living to themselves alone," she said. "We must realize that we are part of a world which is going to have tremendous force. We are no longer a small neighborhood—we are a definite part of the world."

She went on to say that the new Citizenship Act should be carefully studied so that everyone can have a better understanding of his status and the changes it brings him. Although the changes may mean a loss of some of old hostilities, they did not put an end to the problems of delinquency, crime, poverty, racial discord and neglect of children.

The Local Council of Women said that the new legislation would bring about a whole new understanding of women's organization and its need to consider each other's welfare and happiness in families.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to Mrs. Stewart and the other members of the executive committee, and a hearty round of applause.

After the meeting a reception was held at the Hotel Macdonald where the guests were entertained by a band.

At the reception, Mrs. J. R. Ross, chairman of the local council, and Mrs. Hester Hayes, director of the Canadian Red Cross and the Canadian Red Cross Society, were present.

SISTER OF the bride, Mrs. Kathleen Speers, was maid of honor and was a florist of honor, of chart.

The bride, Mrs. John Mathew, carried a colonial bouquet. The flower girl, Miss Mary Anne Mathew, was a picture in a blue dress with a bouquet of American Beauty roses and white baby chrysanthemums.

JULIA COOK was the maid of honor and was a florist of honor. Her only flower was an heirloom necklace.

Later the couple left for a honeymoon in the United States. The bride traveled with her mother and the bridegroom with his mother.

Miss Corinne de la Durantais, who succeeds Miss Hyacinthe Bonin as chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, is here today and Friday, in the Macdonald hotel.

Maritime Mines Try Mechanizing

GLACE BAY, N.S. (CP)—Cape Breton has been operating with greater production than ever since competition from low-priced United States furs on the central Canadian market, are about to take a leaf from the American book and try complete mechanization, mining in Cape Breton's undersea plains.

New machinery is on the way to be installed in some Cape Breton mines, and it is expected that complete mechanization is not far off to come suddenly. Meanwhile, the miners have been installed to see what they can do.

Testifying before the Carroll royal commission on coal 18 months ago, a provincial mining engineer said that mechanization of the pits was one of the answers to the question of increasing production costs, consequently bringing down costs.

Britain to Crush Illegal Building

By Frank J. Murphy
LONDON, AP—Britain is to crack down on "wildcat" contractors who are carrying on black market building operations in an effort to evade government regulation.

Minister of Works George Tomlinson Tuesday said the government was "seriously disturbed" at the extent of the building black markets and that after Feb. 1 all unlicensed contractors would be required to pay more than $40 would have to be licensed.

Our war costing less than $1 billion will be carried out in any one month—which means virtually all private work undertaken in his own home by a British householder must receive the prior consent of the government.
